

NISS 2024 SPEAKERS AND PRESENTERS

Led by Olympian and Australian sprint legend Patrick Johnson the list of speakers and presenters at the 2024 National Indigenous Sports Summit is truly impressive. Patrick's time of 9.93 seconds is still the Oceanian and Australian record in the 100 metres and he is currently Cultural and Safety Adviser for Sport Integrity Australia.

The full list of speakers is yet to be announced but Patrick will be joined by:

- Katrina Fanning – played 26 Rugby League Tests for Australia during a representative career spanning 14 years was appointed to the NRL Hall of Fame in 2024.
- Leon Davis – Collingwood Football Club Cultural Development Manager and former AFL player.
- Belinda Duarte – CEO of Culture is Life and Western Bulldogs board member
- Dean Widders – is NRL Indigenous Pathways manager and a former professional NRL footballer
- Linda Bamblett - CEO Victorian Aboriginal Community Services Association Ltd
- Pauly Vandenberg - AFL State and Diversity Talent Manager and former NBL player
- Paul Briggs - Executive Chair Kaiele Institute and former president Rumbalara Football Netball Club
- Uncle Benny Mills - founder of Indigenous Basketball Australia (IBA)
- Rob Hyatt – Koorie Cultural Experiences Manager - Koori Heritage Trust
- Gary Murray - First Peoples Assembly of Victoria Metro region

More speaker announcements to follow.